REFLECTION
SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, remembering all those who have journeyed before us in faith and now share in God's glory. But this feast is not just about honoring the saints; it is about discovering our own call to holiness and asking ourselves what it truly means to live a saintly life in today's world.

The Book of Revelation was written to strengthen Christians facing persecution and suffering. Through symbolic visions, St John assures them that God has not abandoned His people and that those who remain faithful to Christ will share in His victory. In today's first reading, John sees a great multitude from every nation, tribe, people and language standing before God's throne. They wear white robes and hold palm branches, praising God and Jesus Christ, the Lamb. The 144,000 who are sealed represent God's people under His protection, while the countless multitude reveals that salvation is offered to people of every nation and background. The white robes symbolize purity and victory, while the palm branches represent triumph. Their robes have been washed in the blood of the Lamb, reminding us that salvation comes through Christ's sacrifice and God's grace.

On the Solemnity of All Saints, this reading reminds us that the saints were not perfect people who never made mistakes; they were people who allowed God's grace to transform their lives and remained faithful through life's struggles. The question is not simply whether we admire the saints, but whether we are willing to follow their example and walk faithfully with Christ every day.

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, recordando a todos aquellos que nos han precedido en la fe y que ahora comparten la gloria de Dios. Pero esta fiesta no se trata solo de honrar a los santos; se trata de descubrir nuestra propia llamada a la santidad y de preguntarnos qué significa realmente vivir una vida santa en el mundo de hoy.

El libro del Apocalipsis fue escrito para fortalecer a los cristianos que afrontaban persecución y sufrimiento. A través de visiones simbólicas, san Juan les asegura que Dios no ha abandonado a su pueblo y que quienes permanezcan fieles a Cristo compartirán su victoria. En la primera lectura de hoy, Juan ve una gran multitud de toda nación, tribu, pueblo y lengua de pie ante el trono de Dios.

Visten túnicas blancas y sostienen ramas de palma, alabando a Dios y a Jesucristo, el Cordero. Los 144,000 que están sellados representan al pueblo de Dios bajo Su protección, mientras que la multitud incontable revela que la salvación se ofrece a personas de todas las naciones y procedencias. Las túnicas blancas simbolizan pureza y victoria, mientras que las ramas de palma representan el triunfo. Sus túnicas han sido lavadas en la sangre del Cordero, recordándonos que la salvación viene a través del sacrificio de Cristo y la gracia de Dios.

En la solemnidad de Todos los Santos, esta lectura nos recuerda que los santos no eran personas perfectas que nunca cometían errores; eran personas que permitieron que la gracia de Dios transformara sus vidas y permanecieron fieles a través de las luchas de la vida. La pregunta no es simplemente si admiramos a los santos, sino si estamos dispuestos a seguir su ejemplo y caminar fielmente con Cristo cada día.

COMBINED ANNOUNCEMENTS
