FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

HOW TO PREPARE FOR CONFESSION

A reflection on the mercy and forgiveness of Jesus along with an examination of conscience are the keys to a more joyful, meaningful confession. Then, ask yourself:

- Do I have a positive attitude? Do I have a sincere desire to be freed from sin, become closer to God? Or do I tend to avoid penance?
- Have I made omissions? Did I forget or deliberately conceal grave sins in past confessions?
- Am I really trying to change? Have I performed penances given in the past to make amends for hurting others? Am I trying to lead a better life in keeping with the Gospel?
- Look honestly at your everyday ACTIONS AND ATTITUDES. Is my life a witness to God? Am I true to God's word through faith, prayer, obedience to the Church?
- Do I truly love my neighbor? Do I deal lovingly, fairly, compassionately with family, friends, and associates?
- Do I strive for SPIRITUAL GROWTH? Do I follow Christ' example, seeking moral purity and true humility?
