REFLECTION

In the first reading of this Sunday, the church reminds us of this famous verse from the book of Habakkuk, “The just shall live by his faithfulness.” As human beings, at times in life, we find ourselves in the shoes of the prophet Habakkuk. We find ourselves helpless, and everything goes dark, and hope appears hopeless to us. It is part of the process of Christian growth and maturity.

The good news is that God will not fail us if we remain faithful during such moments. He will break his silence at his appropriate time to reassure us that he is there for us. Through these words, “The just shall live by his faithfulness, God encourages us to remain faithful in good deeds and actions. This faith in question is saving faith. The Just here is the one who still perseveres in good deeds. He is the one who still trusts in the saving power of God. He is the one who still prays to God.

In the second reading, Paul strikes the same note by admonishing us thus: “Fan into flame the gift that God gave you. Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from us, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.” Here, the Apostle calls us to action. He awakens us to realize who we are. He reminds us of the power of God at work in us through the sound teachings we have received.

He encourages us to preserve the faith (the sound doctrine) we have received from God through the Holy Spirit and His apostles. Hence, this simply reminds us that our journey is a journey of faith. This faith must be constantly questioned and called into action. We must live this faith through our steadfastness and perseverance. This faith must be demonstrated through actions because: “Faith without action is dead” (James 2:26). This faith-in-action must be solidified by daily resolve to pray as Jeus’ disciples requested, “Lord increase our faith,” as we journey through life with humility and flourish in the world.

THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. It is a form of contemplative prayer, mental and vocal prayer, which brings down God’s blessing on the Church. The Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated on Oct. 7th. Please join us in Corning at 11:00 a.m. for the Patriotic Rosary on October 7th.

The rosary is also said before each weekend mass in both parishes.
