REFLECTION

Feast –The Epiphany of the Lord

The Greek word Epiphany (ἐπιφάνεια) means appearance or manifestation or showing forth. It marks Jesus' first appearance to the Gentiles. "Epiphany" refers to God's Self-revelation as well as to the revelation of Jesus as His Son. In the Gospel reading, Matthew teaches how Christ enriches those who bring Him their hearts. The Magi came with joy in their hearts to visit the Christ Child, God allowed them to see wondrous things. "Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we have observed his star in the East and have come to worship him" (Mt 2:2). With these words, the Magi, who came from afar, tells us the reason for their long journey: they came to worship the newborn King. To see and to worship.

These two actions stand out in the Gospel account: 1) We saw a star and 2) we went to worship. These men saw a star that made them set out. The discovery of something unusual in the heavens sparked a whole series of events. The star did not shine just for them, nor did they have special DNA to be able to see it. As one of the Church Fathers rightly noted, the Magi did not set out because they had seen the star, but they saw the star because they had already set out (cf. Saint John Chrysostom). Their hearts were open to the horizon, and they could see what the heavens were showing them, for they were guided by an inner restlessness. They were open to something new.

The Magi thus personify all those who believe, those who long for God, who yearn for their home, their heavenly homeland. We are invited to recognize that the Gospel is not an event of the past but of the present. This same longing led the elderly Simeon to go up each day to the Temple, certain that his life would not end before he had held the Savior in his arms. This longing led the Prodigal Son to abandon his self-destructive lifestyle and to seek his father's embrace.

This was the longing felt by the shepherd who left the ninety-nine sheep in order to seek out the one that was lost. Mary Magdalen experienced the same longing on that Sunday morning when she ran to the tomb and met her risen Master.

We are reminded today that longing for God draws us out of our isolation, which makes us think that nothing can change. Longing for God shatters our dreary routines and impels us to make the changes we want and need. Longing for God has its roots in the past yet does not remain there: it reaches out to the future. We are called to seek and long for the God who saves, delivers and heals. To long for Him who is our joy and peace; who is a great provider; who makes all things new in his time; who calms the storms of life; unites our families; who care for widows and orphans; who strengthens us in Christ; who calls us to holiness and compunction.
