REFLECTION

The first reading of this Sunday prefigures and epitomizes the humility of the Christ who is to come. This reading is a hope raiser for all of us. This is primarily for the humble of heart and the poor in spirit: “Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion...behold your king comes...humble and riding on a donkey.” Is this not wonderful? Of course, he comes to give succor and justice to the humble.

This visit is for all of us. Our importance to God does not depend on how much we have in our accounts, our brilliant profession, our successful political career, or our successful business. To be a humble person is what is important to God. This is what merits us this divine visit from Him.

In the gospel, Jesus reveals and gives us the key to the heart of His Father. This key is humility. God reveals himself to the humble of heart and the lowly. Therefore, “God resists the proud-hearted but gives grace to the humble” (Prov 29: 23). If we must serve God well, we must be humble of heart like Christ, our lord. If we humble ourselves, God will reveal his kingdom’s secrets to us.

Today, Jesus beckons us: “Come to me all who labor and are heavily laden, and I will give you rest.” This invitation is not for the proud-hearted because they hardly realize they are overburdened or need help. Instead, it is for the simple and humble of heart who are fast to recognize their need for God’s intervention.

It is for those who shoulder the burden of their family, marriage, community, and nation. It is an invitation extended to those genuinely seeking God’s face. It is for those ready to submit and surrender all to Christ. He comes, and he reaches for all of us. He invites, and he invites all of us. So, let us approach him singing: “I will bless your name forever, O God my king!

La primera lectura de este domingo prefigura y resume la humildad del Cristo que ha de venir.

Esta lectura renueva la esperanza para todos nosotros. Está dirigida principalmente a los humildes de corazón y a los pobres de espíritu: “Alégrate mucho, hija de Sión... he aquí que tu rey viene... humilde y montado sobre un asno.” ¿No es esto maravilloso? Por supuesto, viene para brindar auxilio y justicia a los humildes.

Esta visita es para todos nosotros. Nuestra importancia para-Dios no depende de cuánto tengamos en nuestras cuentas, de nuestra brillante profesión, de una exitosa carrera política o de un negocio próspero. Lo que es importante para-Dios es ser una persona humilde. Eso es lo que nos hace merecedores de esta visita divina de su parte.

En el Evangelio, Jesús nos revela y nos entrega la llave del corazón de su Padre. Esa llave es la humildad. Dios se revela a los humildes de corazón y a los sencillos. Por eso, “Dios humilla al orgulloso, pero concede gracia al humilde” (Prov 29,23). Si queremos servir bien a Dios, debemos ser humildes de corazón como Cristo, nuestro Señor. Si nos humillamos, Dios nos revelará los secretos de su Reino.

Así, Jesús nos invita: “Vengan a mí todos los que están fatigados y agobiados, y yo les daré descanso.” Esta invitación no es para los orgullosos, sino para los sencillos y humildes de corazón que reconocen con prontitud su necesidad de la intervención de Dios.

Este es un mensaje de consuelo para todos los que llevan sobre sus hombros la carga de su familia, su matrimonio, su comunidad y su nación. Es una invitación dirigida a quienes buscan sinceramente el rostro de Dios y están dispuestos a entregarlo todo a Cristo.

ADVENTURELAND TRIP

The annual trip to Adventureland for Altar Servers is scheduled for July 29th. More details to come but if you would like to go as a chaperone or driver, please contact Sheila Ramsey. Thank you Knights of Columbus for sponsoring this fun time for our kids who serve our church as Altar boys & girls.

COMMUNAL ROSARY BEFORE MASS

Parishioners are encouraged to join in praying the ROSARY at 5:00PM every Saturday and 10:00am every Sunday before start of Mass.

ROOF PROJECT

Please be patient as they install the new roof for our church, office and rectory. The roofing crew has a lot of equipment, and we may have to work around it for the next 2 to 3 months.

STORM DAMAGE

The insurance adjuster has been here and assessed damage to the church and parish center. We are awaiting his claims assessments. The air conditioner is back in place on the roof of the parish center.

GRANT PROJECT

The security lights and doorbell have been installed and they are functioning. The lights are designed to come on and off to increase security at the church and rectory at dusk and dawn.
